EACG is partner in the “TechCMS” EU project

The European Association of Career Guidance is a partner in the consortium of the EU funded project Technology-enhanced Career Management Skills(CMS) for Adults – TechCMS”

The main aim of this project is to develop and deliver an innovative Virtual Career Guidance and Learning Centre and an on-line Self-Assessment Tool, in order to enhance the capacity of career professionals, through training, to provide CMS guidance to individuals and empower their skills with the use of technology. For more information about the TechCMS project, please visit the website.

In this context, a survey research is conducted, for trends in the CMS field and the needs and gaps of CMS in specific target groups.

Your contribution in this survey will provide useful information for the development of outputs that will improve skills’ intelligence and information for better career choices.
