Erasmus+ playing its part in the Africa-Europe Alliance

The EU is well on the way to meeting President Juncker's commitment of funding Erasmus+ higher education scholarships for 35,000 African students and staff by 2020. The Africa-Europe Alliance is all about investing in people's futures. Primarily by equipping young people with the skills they need to build their futures – and the futures of their respective continents.

In the spotlight: Erasmus+ is worldwide

30 years of mobility under the Erasmus programme – now Erasmus+ – have provided Europe with thousands of bridges of trust to study, train or volunteer abroad. Today, Europeans can freely cross borders to learn more from each other's views and perspectives; exchange experiences and ideas; share values; and start joint projects. Wider horizons, a broader common understanding and a larger toolset define the Erasmus+ generation.
